A true copy of said By-Laws are attached hereto, marked Exhibit "C", and made a part hereof. Said By-Laws shall constitute the By-Laws of the "Association of Unit Owners", which phrase shall be deemed synonymous with the phrase "Council of Unit Owners" as defined in Section 503 (m) of the Act. The word "Association" as used herein and as used in the attached By-Laws is synonymous with the word "Council" as defined and used in the Act.

(2) Membership in Association: All unit owners of units in Pecan Grove Garden Homes shall constitute the Association of Unit Owners, an unincorporated association. Any person upon becoming the owner of a unit ownership estate in Pecan Grove Garden Homes shall automatically become a member of the Association and shall remain a member for the period of his unit ownership and be subject to the attached By-Laws. Membership in this Association may not be assigned, transferred, sold, pledged, mortgaged or otherwise conveyed or encumbered nor shall ownership thereof devolve in any manner to any other person independently or separately from the unit ownership estate to which such membership appertains.

Membership in this Association or Council shall terminate without any formal action whenever an owner ceases for any reason to own an interest in a unit ownership estate. However, such termination shall not relieve or release any such former owner from any liability or obligation incurred during his period of ownership of an interest in a unit ownership estate. The Association, until permitted as a non-profit corporation by the laws of the State of Oklahoma and until appropriate action is taken by the unit owners as provided in the attached By-Laws, shall remain unincorporated, issue no shares and have no capital stock. However, the governing body of the Association may, if it so elects, issue membership cards to each owner of an interest in a unit ownership estate designated herein. Any membership card so issued shall be surrendered to the Secretary of the Association and/or cancelled by him whenever such member's ownership of an interest in the unit ownership estate designated thereon shall terminate.

There shall be no membership dues or initiation fees as such charged to or collected from any member by the Association. However, this provision shall not be construed or interpreted as limiting, modifying or in any manner affecting assessments for common expenses as provided in the attached By-Laws, this Declaration or the Act.

Membership in this Association of Unit Owners may not be revoked, terminated, cancelled or suspended for any cause except as provided in the Act or this Declaration or as may be provided in the attached By-Laws.

(3) Administrative Control of Property: The property herein submitted to the Act shall be administered, managed and under the control of a Board of Administrators. Said Board of Administrators shall also be the governing body of the Association of Unit Owners. Until ten (10) unit ownership estates have been sold and title thereto transferred by the Declarant herein or until the first day of January, 1982, whichever occurs first, and thereafter until their successors shall have been elected by the unit owners, as provided in the attached By-Laws, the Board of Administrators shall consist of such of the officers and members of the Board of Directors, not exceeding three (3) in number, of the Declarant herein as shall be designated by it. Said officers or directors of Declarant need not be unit owners or occupants of units of Pecan Grove Garden Homes. Each unit shall be subject to an easement in favor of the owners of all other units to use the pipes, ducts, cables, wires, conduits, public utility lines and other common elements serving such other units and located in such unit. The Board of Administrators shall have a right of access to each unit to inspect the same, to remove violations therefrom and to maintain, repair or replace the common elements contained therein or elsewhere in the building in which such unit is situated.

(2) If any portion of the common elements encroaches upon any unit or units, or if any unit or units encroach upon any other unit or units or upon any portion of the common elements, as a result of the construction of the building in which such unit or units are situated, or if any such encroachment shall occur as the result of shifting or settling of the building in which any unit or units are situated, a valid easement for each such encroachment and for the maintenance of the same shall exist so long as the building containing the unit or units so encroaching shall exist. In the event any building on the property or any unit within a building on the property or any common element shall be partially or totally destroyed as a result of fire or other casualty or is taken or damaged as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, and then the same is rebuilt, encroachment of parts of the same upon any unit or units or upon any of the common elements due to such rebuilding shall be permitted and valid easements for such encroachments and the maintenance thereof shall exist so long as the unit or units or common elements so encroaching shall stand.

Each owner of a unit ownership estate in Pecan Grove Garden Homes, by acceptance of a deed thereto, does hereby specifically consent to each of the foregoing easements and the maintenance thereof.

ARTICLE XI

POWER OF ATTORNEY

Each unit owner shall grant to the persons who shall from time to time constitute the Board of Administrators, an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest, to acquire title to or lease any unit whose owner desires to surrender, sell or lease the same or which may be the subject of a foreclosure or other judicial sale, in the name of the Board of Administrators or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all unit owners, and to convey, sell, lease, mortgage, vote the votes appurtenant thereto or otherwise deal with any such unit so acquired or to sublease any unit so leased by the Board of Administrators. However, the exercise of such power of attorney is subject to the consent of the unit owners as set forth in the attached By-Laws. Title to any unit purchased pursuant to this power of attorney shall be held by the Board of Administrators or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all unit owners in proportion to their respective interest in the common elements.

BOOK 771 PAGE 718

(2) Except as reserved to the Declarant herein, no unit may be divided or subdivided into a smaller unit or units.

(3) No noxious or offensive activity or trade shall be carried on in any unit or upon or about the common elements or the vicinity thereof nor shall anything be done thereon or thereabouts by any unit owner, his social or business guests, invitees, tenants, employees, agents, servants or any person residing with him, which may be or become an annoyance or nuisance to any other unit owner.

(4) No unit owner shall do or cause to be done any work upon or about his unit that will impair or jeopardize the structural soundness or safety of the property or that will impair any easement or hereditament.

(5) No common elements shall be utilized for any purpose other than the basic, primary and customary purpose for which the same was installed, designed and constructed. Any question as to the purpose and use to be made of any common element shall be determined by the Board of Administrators.

(6) No portion of a unit (other than the entire unit) may be rented or leased and no transient tenants may be accommodated therein.

(7) Each unit owner covenants and agrees to keep his unit in an orderly and sanitary condition and not to use nor permit the use of his unit or any portion thereof for any purpose or in any manner that will increase the insurance rate or risk thereon or upon the other units or upon the common elements. Each person, upon becoming a unit owner, further agrees to observe and promptly comply with all laws, ordinances and regulations affecting the use of his unit or the common elements and the cleanliness, safety, occupation and ownership of the same. No unit owner will commit nor suffer a person under his control or person on the property at his invitation to commit any waste or damage to the common elements or other units.

(8) Each unit owner agrees to save the Board of Administrators, the Association, its officers, and all other unit owners harmless from and to promptly discharge any impositions or other charges levied or made by any governmental authority by reason of such unit owner's violation of any law, ordinance or regulation of any governmental authority.

(9) Reasonable rules and regulations concerning the use of the property may be made and amended from time to time by the Board of Administrators. Copies of such rules and regulations and amendments thereto shall be furnished by the Board to all unit owners, and, upon request, to lessees or mortgagees of any units.

(10) No unit owner or occupant of any unit shall at any time unreasonably obstruct the corridors, passageways, entrances or exits to and from the property, including streets and parking area points of ingress and egress, or to and from any unit or common element.

(11) Except as herein reserved to the Declarant, no unit owner or occupant of any unit shall post any advertisements, signs, notices, bulletins or posters of any kind in, on or about the property unless and only to the extent authorized in writing by the Board of Administrators.

(12) Owner desires that communication service and the supply of electricity throughout said project be provided, to the fullest extent deemed practicable, through facilities located underground rather than overhead, and for the purpose of facilitating such installation, Declarant agrees to include the following provisions in the Declaration creating said unit ownership estate, to-wit:

(a) The supplier of electric service and communication facilities, through its proper agents and employees shall at all times have right of access to all such easement-ways shown on said plat, or provided for in this Declaration for the purpose of installing, maintaining, removing or replacing any portion of said underground communication and electric facilities so installed by them.

(b) The owner of each unit shall be responsible for the protection of the underground electric and communication facilities located on his property and shall prevent the alteration of grade or any construction activity which may interfere with said electric or communication facilities; that the owners of all units collectively shall be responsible for the protection of underground electric and communication facilities located on or under the common elements of Pecan Grove Garden Homes in the same way that each owner is individually responsible for the facilities on his individual property. The company shall be responsible for ordinary maintenance of underground electric and communication facilities, but the owner will pay for damage or relocation of such facilities caused or necessitated by acts of the owner or his agents or contractors.

(c) The foregoing covenants concerning underground electric and communication facilities shall be enforceable by the supplier thereof, and the owner of each unit and the owners of all units collectively agree to be bound hereby.

The foregoing restrictions shall not operate to limit or prohibit the adoption by the Board of Administrators of rules and regulations restricting or regulating the use, occupancy and maintenance of the units and the common elements.

ARTICLE XIII

USE AND APPURTENANT INTEREST IN COMMON ELEMENTS UNSEVERABLE

Each unit and the undivided interest in and to the common elements appurtenant thereto shall be inseparable and may be conveyed, leased or encumbered only with the unit ownership estate of which they form a part.

The common elements shall remain undivided and no unit owner shall bring any action for partition or division thereof.

None of the provisions of this Article shall be construed as a limitation on the right of partition of a unit ownership estate between the owners thereof but such partition shall not affect any other unit ownership estate.

ARTICLE XIV

COMPLIANCE WITH DECLARATION, BY-LAWS AND RULES AND REGULATIONS

All present and future owners, tenants and occupants of unit ownership estates covered hereby shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the rules and regulations as they may be amended from time to time. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance or the entering into of a lease or the entering into occupancy of any unit ownership estate shall constitute an irrevocable agreement that the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the rules and regulations as they may be amended from time to time are accepted and ratified by such owner, tenant or occupant and all such provisions shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such unit ownership estate as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed or conveyance or lease thereof.

(5) Closing of Unit Owners' Registry. For the purpose of determining unit owners entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of unit owners or any adjournment thereof or in order to make a determination of unit owners for any proper purpose, except as otherwise provided, the Board of Administrators may provide that the unit ownership registry shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed in any case twenty (20) days prior to such meeting. However, in any event, the registry shall be closed for the purpose of determining unit owners entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of the unit owners for at least ten (10) days immediately preceding any meeting. When a determination of unit owners entitled to vote at any meeting thereof has been made, as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

(6) Unit Ownership Registry. Any person becoming an owner of an interest in any unit ownership estate as designated in the Declaration shall, within ten (10) days from the date of acquisition of such interest, furnish to the Secretary of the Association a certified copy of the instrument evidencing such ownership. From these instruments, the Secretary shall compile and maintain a current and complete registry of the owners of any interest in the unit ownership estates in Pecan Grove Garden Homes, arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the percentage ownership in the common elements held by each interest owner. Such registry shall be kept on file at the office of the Association and shall be subject to inspection by any unit owner at any time during usual business hours. Such registry or a list compiled therefrom shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of any meeting and shall be subject to inspection of any unit owner during the whole time of any such meeting. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified.

(8) Proxies. At all meetings of unit owners, a unit owner may vote by proxy, executed in writing by such owner. Such proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the Association before or at the time of the meeting, and shall be revocable at any time without notice to the Secretary. A proxy holder need not be a unit owner.

(9) Voting. On all matters submitted to a vote of the unit owners, each unit owner shall have a vote equal to his, her or its proportionate undivided interest in the common elements shall be determined in accordance with the percentage of interest ownership in the common elements attributed to and shown opposite such owner's unit designation in the schedule set forth in Article VII of the Declaration.

Cumulative voting is prohibited.

Where a unit ownership estate is owned in joint tenancy, each joint tenant shall be deemed to own an equal undivided interest in such unit ownership estate with all other joint tenants therein for the purpose of computing his vote unless otherwise provided by law. Where title to a unit ownership estate is held in life tenancy with either vested or contingent remainderment or both vested and contingent remaindermen, all voting rights shall be exercised solely by the life tenant or life tenants and neither the vested or contingent remaindermen shall have any voting rights, unless otherwise provided by the Act or the Declaration.

Unless a larger percentage is otherwise provided by the Act or the Declaration or other provisions of these By-Laws, affirmative votes of unit owners owning more than fifty per cent (50%) of the aggregate interest in the common elements as established by the Declaration shall be necessary to make or adopt any decision by the unit owners.

Voting shall be by roll call unless a unit owner requests that any particular matter be by written ballot and if such a request is made, the written ballot must be utilized reflecting the signature of each unit owner casing a ballot.

(10) Voting by Certain Members. A unit ownership estate held in the name of a corporation may be voted by any officer, agent or proxy of such corporation designated by it.

A unit ownership estate held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator shall be voted by him either in person or by proxy without a transfer of such unit ownership estate into his name. A unit ownership estate standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him either in person or by proxy.

A unit ownership estate standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such received and a unit ownership estate held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the Court by which such receiver was appointed.

A unit ownership estate acquired by the Board of Administrators or held by it in a fiduciary capacity may be voted at any meeting by the President and shall be counted in determining the total undivided percentage interest in the common elements except that no such unit ownership estate shall be voted in the election of a member to the Board of Administrators or for removal of an Administrator.

All services provided to or by the common elements or for the benefit of all unit owners shall also be under the exclusive direction and control of the Board of Administrators.

All maintenance, repairs and replacements to the common elements as defined in the Declaration, whether located inside or outside of the units, shall be made by the Board of Administrators and be charged to all the unit owners as a common expense except:

(a) Each unit owner shall be responsible, at his sole cost and expense, for keeping any limited common element appurtenant to his unit clean and in a sanitary condition and free and clear of any snow, ice, accumulation of water or debris.

(b) All maintenance, repairs and replacements to the common elements made by the Board of Administrators and necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a unit owner, his family, tenants, lessees, agents or business or social invitees and guests shall not be a common expense but shall be charged to and paid by said unit owner. A unit owner shall be obligated to reimburse the Board of Administrators for the cost and expense thereof immediately upon receipt of a statement therefor.

(c) Each unit owner shall be responsible, at his sole cost and expense for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the air-conditioning compressor unit or any component part thereof, serving his particular unit, and all service lines therefrom to his unit.

All incidental damage caused to a unit by maintenance, repair or replacement of any common elements shall be promptly repaired by the Board of Administrators and shall be deemed a common expense.

(2) Units. Exclusive of replacements, reconstruction and repairs necessitated by casualty as hereinafter set forth, all maintenance of and repairs or replacements to any unit, structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, shall be made by the owner of such unit at his sole expense. The maintenance, repair and replacement obligations of the unit owner shall include without limitation, all repairs, maintenance and replacement of the hot water tank, bathroom fixtures, electrical fixtures, built-in kitchen appliances, air-conditioning and heating units and their component parts (including individual air-conditioning compressor serving said unit and all service lines therefrom as above set forth), all floor coverings, window coverings, door or window glass, and all conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring and other facilities for the furnishing of utility service contained within such owner's unit which do not service any other unit or units.

Each unit owner must promptly perform, at his sole expense, maintenance, replacement and repair work within his own unit which, if omitted, would affect the value, comfort, safety, or well-being of other units in Pecan Grove Garden Homes or the common elements. All redecoration and other expenditures made on the interior of any unit for the sole enjoyment, convenience or safety of that particular unit owner shall be at his sole expense.

Nothing in this numerical paragraph contained shall be construed to impose upon a unit owner the duty or expense of maintenance, repair or replacement of any common elements located or installed within his unit and utilized or operated for the benefit of other unit owners.

(3) Right of Entry. A unit owner shall grant the right of entry or access to his unit to the Board of Administrators, Manager and/or the Managing Agent, and/or any other person authorized by the Board of Administrators, the Manager or the Managing Agent, for the purpose of making inspections or for the purpose of correcting any condition originating in his unit and threatening another unit or a common element, or for the purpose of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services or other common elements in his unit or elsewhere in the building, or to correct any condition which violates the provisions of any mortgage covering another unit, provided that requests for entry are made in advance and that any such entry is at a time reasonably convenient to the unit owner. However each owner, by acceptance of a deed to his unit, specifically agrees that the aforementioned persons and those persons authorized by them shall have the right of entry to such owner's unit in case of any emergency originating in or threatening his unit or units of others or the common elements, whether the unit owner is present at the time or not. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the unit owner is present at the time or not.

(4) Restriction on Repairs of Common Elements. No unit owner, as such, will attempt to make any repairs to the common elements personally or direct or authorize others to do so. If any unit owner observes any portion of the common elements to be in a state of disrepair, he shall promptly call such to the attention of a member of the Board of Administrators or the Manager or Managing Agent and make no effort himself to remedy the situation. No maintenance or repair tools or equipment owned as a common element may be utilized by a unit owner for his personal needs.

The Board of Administrators may set forth such rules and regulations as deemed by it expedient, necessary or desirable to aid the minimizing of any maintenance, repair or surveillance costs. Such rules and regulations shall be binding upon all unit owners and must be promptly observed by them. Copies of any such rules and regulations promulgated by the Board must be furnished to each unit owner.

Each unit owner shall use the common elements in accordance with the purpose for which they were intended and shall cooperate with the Board of Administrators and any Manager or Managing Agent in maintaining the common elements and minimizing repairs.

(5) Maintenance and Repair Tools and Equipment. Any equipment or tools determined by the Board of Administrators to be necessary for use in the maintenance and repair of the common elements may be purchased by the Board and shall be maintained, stored and repaired by the Board. The selection and purchase of any such equipment or tools or any replacements thereof shall be the sole responsibility of the Board of Administrators and the acquisition cost of the same and expenses of maintenance or repair thereof shall be deemed a common expense.

(6) Maintenance, Upkeep and Repair Personnel

(a) There shall be employed by the Board of Administrators such maintenance employees as said Board shall deem necessary to perform all maintenance, upkeep, repair and surveillance of the common elements. Requests for services of any maintenance employee must be directed to the Board of Administrators or the Manager or the Managing Agent and any procedures therefor established by the Board strictly adhered to.

(b) The selection, tenure of employment, salary or other rate of pay, and conditions of employment of any maintenance personnel shall be within the sole discretion, judgment and control of the Board of Administrators or Manager or Managing Agent. The compensation of all such personnel shall be deemed a common expense. The Board shall be limited in the establishment of such compensation only by what similar services are valued in the County of Washington, State of Oklahoma. The Board shall not, however, employ any member thereof or any relative of the Board as maintenance employee. The same restriction shall apply to any Manager or Managing Agent. Such restriction on the employment of relatives, however, may be waived by a majority vote of the unit owners.

(c) No maintenance personnel employed by the Board shall be authorized to obligate the unit owners for any tools, equipment or for any materials or labor necessary in the making of repairs or necessary to maintain or protect the property. However, in the event damage to any of the common elements occurs creating an emergency jeopardizing the safety of the unit owners or their property or the common elements and no member of the Board of Administrators or Managing Agent or manager is immediately available to authorize emergency repairs, such maintenance personnel as are on duty at the particular time may authorize the making of any such emergency repair.

(d) The Board of Administrators may discharge, suspend or otherwise discipline any maintenance employee for any cause which in the sole judgment of the Board, justifies such disciplinary action. No unit owner, as such, may dismiss or otherwise discipline any maintenance employee of the Board.

(e) The Board of Administrators shall be authorized to maintain or cause to be maintained such employment records as may be required by any state or federal law, act or statute or any subdivision of state or federal government and to render such reports as may be required without regard to personnel employed by them.

ARTICLE VIII

ADDITIONS, ALTERATIONS OR IMPROVEMENTS

(1) Approval of Unit Owners. No additions, alterations or improvements to the common elements may be made by the Board of Administrators unless such additions, alterations or improvements have been authorized by at least eighty per cent (80%) of the unit owners computed on the basis set forth in Section 503 (n) of the Act and unless authorized by all mortgagees holding first real estate mortgages on any unit or units within Pecan Grove Garden Homes. The expense of any such additions, alterations or improvements so authorized shall be assessed and payable by all unit owners as a common expense. Such additions, alterations and improvements shall be made by the Board of Administrators. Additions, alterations or improvements shall not be deemed to include ordinary maintenance, repairs and replacements contemplated by the preceding Article.

(2) Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Unit Owners. No unit owners shall make any structural addition, alteration or improvements to any of the common elements.

No unit owner shall make any structural addition, alteration or improvement in or to his unit without the prior written consent thereto of the Board of Administrators. The Board shall have the obligation to answer any written request by a unit owner for approval of a proposed structural addition, alteration or improvement in or to his unit within thirty (30) days after such request and failure to do so within said period shall constitute a consent to the proposed addition, alteration or improvement. Any authorized structural addition, alteration or improvements to the unit of a unit owner shall be at the sole cost and expense of such unit owner. Any application to any department of the County of Washington, State of Oklahoma, or to any other governmental authority for a permit to make an addition, alteration or improvement in or to any unit shall be executed by the Board of Administrators only, without, however, incurring any liability on the part of the Board or any of them to any contractor, subcontractor or materialmen on account of such addition, alteration or improvement or to any person having any claim for injury to person, including death, or damages to property arising therefrom. The Board may make any requirements as a condition prerequisite to the making of any such addition, alteration or improvement which it deems reasonably necessary for the protection of any other unit owner or owners for the protection of the common elements.

ARTICLE IX

INSURANCE

(1) Except builder's risk insurance and other insurance which may be furnished by the Declarant during construction, the Board of Administrators shall obtain and maintain to the extent available insurance on the common elements, machinery, equipment and all other personal property as may be held and administered by the Board for the benefit of the unit owners. The Board of Administrators shall counsel with a responsible and reputable general insurance broker and/or counselor and shall obtain such insurance necessary to cover the interest of the Association and the Board. The insurance shall be purchased from recognized insurance companies duly licensed to do business in the State of Oklahoma.

(2) (a) With reference to paragraph numbered (1) above, the property shall be covered by casualty to physical damage insurance in an amount equal to the full replacement value of the buildings and common elements as determined annually by the Board of Administrators with the assistance of the insurance company or companies affording such coverage. Such coverage shall afford protection against the following:

1. Loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by the standard extended coverage endorsement together with coverage for payment of common expenses with respect to damaged units during the period of reconstruction. Public liability insurance in such amounts and in such forms as shall be required by the Board of Administrators including, but not limiting, the same to legal liability, hired automobile, non-owned automobile and off-premises employee coverages. The Board of Administrators shall review the limits and coverage of such public liability insurance at least once each year.

2. Workmen's Compensation to meet the requirements of the law.

3. Such other insurance as the Board of Administrators shall determine from time to time to be desirable.

(3) Each unit owner, at his own expense, shall carry and constantly maintain in force:

(a) Insurance as normally afforded under home ownership type policy for an amount equal to full replacement value of his unit. Public liability insurance shall be carried by each unit owner in such amount as the said unit owner deems necessary, but in any event for not less than $50,000.00.

(b) A certificate evidencing such coverage shall be furnished by the unit owner to the Board of Administrators concurrently with the delivery of a deed and the owner shall furnish certificates evidencing renewal or substituted coverage on or before the expiration or cancellation of any such policies of insurance.

(c) If it is determined by the Board of Administrators that a unit owner is inadequately insured, he shall be so notified in writing and shall increase his insurance without any undue delay, taking into consideration the protection afforded to himself and adjoining unit owners.

(4) Premiums upon insurance policies purchased by the Board of Administrators for the common elements shall be assessed and paid as a common expense. Premiums for an insurance policy purchased by any unit owner individually shall be paid by him as his own separate expense.

ARTICLE X

RECONSTRUCTION OR REPAIR AFTER FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

(1) Damage to or destruction of any building or other improvements on the land by fire or other casualty shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed by the unit owner.

BOOK 771 PAGE 738

(2) In the event of reconstruction or repair pursuant to the terms hereof, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) Any such reconstruction or repair shall be substantially in accordance with the original plans and specifications.

(b) Immediately after a casualty causing damage to the property, the Board of Administrators shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to place the damaged property in as good a condition as before the casualty. Such cost may include professional fees and premiums for such bonds as the Board of Administrators desire.

COMMON EXPENSES

(1) Assessment of Common Expenses. The Board of Administrators is hereby authorized to make, levy and impose, from time to time, assessments against all unit owners in an amount estimated by such Board to be necessary to meet the common expenses. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2) of this Article, assessments for common expenses shall be allocated among the unit owners according to their respective percentage interest in the general common elements as set forth in Article VII of the Declaration of Pecan Grove Garden Homes.

Within thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of any calendar year, the Board of Administrators shall prepare a budget of common expenses of the property for that year. The total amount of said budget as determined by the Board of Administrators shall be allocated and assessed among the unit owners according to their respective interests in the general common elements as set forth in the Declaration. If the estimated total common expenses set forth in the budget proves inadequate for any reason, including non-payment of any unit owner's assessment, the Board of Administration may at any time during the calendar year, levy a further assessment which shall be allocated among and assessed to the unit owners according to their percentage interest in the general common elements as set forth in the Declaration.

Within fifteen (15) days following completion of the budget of common expenses for any calendar year and prior to the commencement of such calendar year, a statement of the assessment against each unit owner together with a copy of such budget shall be sent to the unit owner. Such annual assessments shall be paid by the unit owners in equal monthly installments on or before the first day of each month during the calendar year for which such assessments are made. As stated above, the Board of Administrators may review and reconsider the assessments made for common expenses for any calendar year and may increase or decrease the same at any time during such calendar year and the unit owners shall pay any such increase on the first day of the month following notice of the increase. If any assessment for common expenses shall remain due and unpaid for more than fifteen (15) days, the Board of Administrators is empowered to proceed in the collection of the same as set forth in numerical paragraph (7) below.

(2) Assessment of Common Expenses Pending Completion of All Units. Notwithstanding any provisions contained herein or in the Declaration, it is expressly agreed by all unit owners that until all units comprising Pecan Grove Garden Homes are completed, ready for sale and occupancy, common expenses will be assessed and paid by each owner of a completed unit in the proportion that such owner's undivided interest in the general common elements bears to the total undivided interest in the general common elements of all units completed and ready for sale or occupancy, except that the Declarant shall not be obligated to pay more than 30% of common expenses of units under construction, completed, ready for sale or occupancy, which have not been sold and deed transferred to a third party. When all units are completed ready for sale or occupancy, assessment for 70% of common elements will be allocated among the unit owners and paid by them according to their interest in the general common elements as set forth in Article VII of the Declaration. A unit will be deemed completed and ready for sale or occupancy and subject to assessment for common expenses when construction of the same has been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor and when all utilities servicing the unit are connected and ready for use. A unit will be deemed completed and ready for sale or occupancy notwithstanding any minor items of construction not then completed.

This provision has been inserted for the benefit of the Declarant to prevent assessment against Declarant for common expenses for units described in the Declaration but that have not even been constructed, ready for sale. The rights herein given to Declarant to defer commencement of participation in common expense assessments are expressly subject to the limitation and restriction that until a particular unit ownership estate becomes subject to assessment for its proportion of common expenses, the interest therein represented as set forth in the Declaration may not be voted or counted in the vote of any matter for decision by the unit owners (except on any vote to remove the property from provisions of the Act as set forth in Section 517), nor shall said unit ownership estate participate in the distribution of any surplus in the common expense fund as set forth in paragraph (4) of this Article, subject, however, to the provisions of Article XVII in the Declaration.

(3) Detailed Statements of Assessments. All statements for assessments of common expenses against the unit owners, including the statement of any annual assessment, shall be itemized and detailed for the benefit of each unit owner.

(4) Surplus. If, in the sole judgment of the Board of Administrators, a surplus exists from assessments made and collected in any calendar year over and above that necessary to meet estimated common expenses, the Board may, in its discretion, distribute to the unit owners all or any portion of such surplus. Distribution of any such surplus so determined by the Board of Administrators shall be made to the unit owners according to their respective interests in the general common elements.

(5) Assessment Roll. The assessments against all unit owners shall be set forth upon a roll of the units which shall be available in the office of the Board of Administrators for inspection at all reasonable times by unit owners or their duly authorized representatives. Such roll shall indicate for each unit the name and address of the owner or owners, the amount of each assessment for common expenses, when such assessment was made and the due date thereof, and the amounts paid upon each assessment and the balance due thereon, if any. In making up the assessment roll, each unit ownership estate is to be treated as such and no division thereof shall be made because such unit ownership estate is owned by more than one person.

A certificate made by the Board of Administrators as to the status of a unit owner's assessment account shall limit the liability of any person for whom such certificate is made, other than the unit owner or owners. The Board of Administrators shall issue to the first mortgagee of any unit, upon its demand, a certificate showing the status of the assessments due from the unit owner or owners of the unit on which such mortgage exists and shall also issue such certificates to such persons as a unit owner or owners may request in writing.

(6) Common Expenses Defined. "Common expenses" to be allocated among and paid by the unit owners as herein provided is defined to include the following items of expense:

(a) The expenses of administration, maintenance, repair or replacement of the common elements except as provided below.

(b) Expenses declared common by provisions of the Act.

(c) Expenses declared common by other provisions of these By-Laws and by the Declaration.

(d) Premiums for all insurance procured or to be procured under the provisions of these By-Laws.

(e) All charges for water, gas and electricity used or consumed on the property or supplied to any common element.

(f) Any deficit in common expenses remaining from a previous assessment period.

(g) Such amounts as the Board of Administrators may deem proper for the establishment of a reserve fund for replacement or contingencies or emergencies.

BOOK 771 PAGE 740

The following are declared herein not to be common expenses:

(a) All expenses and charges incurred by a unit owner in the performance of the maintenance and repair obligations imposed upon such unit owner by the provisions of these By-Laws or by the Declaration or by the Act.

(b) Telephone expense incurred by any unit owner for telephone installations and service to his unit.

(c) The repairs to any common elements necessitated by the negligence or misuse of a unit owner, his guests, lessees, family members of sublessees or subtenants of any lessees or tenants of a unit owner. The cost of any such repairs shall be charged to the unit owner or owners by the Board of Administrators and all sums assessed or charged therefor, if not paid when due, shall constitute a lien on the unit of such owner in accordance with the provisions of Section 524 of the Act and may be enforced as in such Act and in these By-Laws provided.

(7) Collection of Assessments. The Board of Administrators shall take prompt action to collect any assessment for common expenses due from any unit owner which remains unpaid for more than fifteen (15) days from the due date for payment thereof. Except as provided in this Article, if the time of payment is not set forth in any particular assessment for common expenses, the same shall be determined by the Board of Administrators.

In the event of default by any unit owner in paying to the Board of Administrators the common expenses as determined by the Board of Administrators, such unit owner shall be obligated to pay interest at the legal rate on such common expenses from the due date of the assessment thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by the Board of Administrators in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid common expenses. The Board of Administrators shall have the right and duty to attempt to recover such common expenses, together with interest thereon, and the expenses of the proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees, in an action to recover the same brought against such unit owner or owners or by foreclosure of the lien on such unit ownership estate granted by Section 524 of the Act. All sums assessed as hereinabove provided by the Board of Administrators for the share of the common expenses chargeable to any unit ownership estate, which sums are not paid when due, shall constitute a lien on such unit ownership estate from the due date thereof in accordance with the provisions of said Section 524 and may be enforced as therein provided. To evidence such lien, the Board of Administrators may, but shall not be required to, prepare and file a written notice in the Office of the County Clerk of Washington County, Oklahoma, setting forth the amount of any such paid indebtedness, the nature of the indebtedness, the date the assessment was made, the name of the owner or owners of the unit ownership estate and a description of such unit ownership estate. Such a notice shall be signed by the Secretary of the Association or by the Manager or Managing Agent.

In any action to foreclose a lien on any unit ownership estate, the unit owner or owners thereof shall be jointly and severally liable for the reasonable rental value of such unit ownership estate from the date of institution of foreclosure proceedings on said lien until said foreclosure proceedings are terminated; and the Board of Administrators shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect said rentals. In any such foreclosure proceedings, the unit owner or owners shall also be jointly and severally liable for all costs and expenses of such foreclosure proceedings on their unit ownership estate, the cost and expenses for filing the notice or claim of lien and all reasonable attorney's fees incurred in the foreclosure proceeding. The Board of Administrators, acting on behalf of all unit owners, shall have the power to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, convey, vote the vote appurtenant to or otherwise deal with the same, subject to the requirements set forth in Article XII below.

The amount of the common expenses assessed against each unit ownership estate shall also be a debt of the owner or owners thereof, jointly and severally, from the date any such assessment is made. Suit to recover a money judgment for any unpaid assessment of common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosure or waiver of the lien securing the same. In any such suit for money judgment, in addition to the unpaid common expense assessment, the owners jointly and severally shall be liable for and shall pay all costs and expenses of collection and suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any assessment of common expenses not paid when due shall bear interest from the due date thereof at the rate established by the Dewey Bank, Dewey, Oklahoma, as its prime for consumer loans, until paid. The aforesaid statutory lien for common expenses shall also secure such interest and any costs and expenses of collection of any unpaid assessment, including all reasonable attorney's fees.

(8) Miscellaneous Provisions.

(a) No unit owner may exempt himself from the liability for payment of his share of the common expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the common elements or by abandonment of his unit ownership estate.

(b) The omission or failure of the Board of Administrators to fix the assessment for common expenses for any calendar year or the omission or failure of such Board of Administrators to include an item of expense in any particular assessment shall not be deemed a waiver, the modification or release of any unit owner from the obligation to pay such assessment when fixed or made or to pay the assessment for such omitted expense when made.

(c) The Board of Administrators may employ such person or persons as it deems advisable or necessary to assist it in the preparation of any budget for common expenses, the assessments therefor and the allocation of assessments among the unit owners. The compensation and terms of employment of any such person or persons shall be determined solely by the Board of Administrators and shall be deemed a common expense.

ARTICLE XII

SALES, LEASES AND MORTGAGES OF UNIT OWNERSHIP ESTATES

(1) Sales and Leases. No unit owner may sell or lease his unit ownership estate or any interest therein except by complying with the following provisions:

Any unit owner who receives a bona fide offer for the sale of his unit ownership estate or a bona fide offer for a lease or for rental of his unit ownership estate, which he intends to accept, shall give notice to the Board of Administrators of such offer and of such intention, the name and address of the proposed purchaser or lessee, the terms of the proposed transaction and such other information as the Board of Administrators may reasonably require. An executed copy of such offer shall accompany said notice. At the same time as the giving of such notice to the Board of Administrators, such unit owner shall offer to sell his unit ownership estate or to lease the same to the Board of Administrators or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of the owners of all other unit ownership estates, on the same terms and conditions as contained in the aforesaid bona fide offer. The giving of the aforesaid notice shall constitute a warranty and representation by the unit owner who has received such third party offer to the Board of Administrators on behalf of the other unit owners that such unit owner believes the third party offer to be bona fide in all respects. Within twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice, the Board of Administrators may elect, by written notice to such unit owner, to purchase his unit ownership estate or to lease the same, as the base may be (or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise) on behalf of all other unit owners, on the same terms and conditions as contained in the third party offer and as stated in the notice from the offering unit owner. In the event the Board of Administrators shall elect to purchase such unit ownership estate, or to lease the same, or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise, such purchase or lease transaction shall be closed at the office of the attorneys for the Association at the time specified in said third party offer for the closing thereof and in the absence of said third party offer specifying a time for closing, the same shall be closed ten (10) days after approval of title to said unit ownership estate by the attorneys for the Association. In the event said third party offer does not contain a provision for examination of title, the selling unit owner shall furnish an abstract of title to the Board of Administrators within ten (10) days after the giving of notice by said Board of its election to accept such offer. Said abstract shall reflect merchantable title to said unit ownership estate in the offering unit owner. The Board shall have ten (10) days after receipt of such abstract in which to examine the same and in which to furnish to the offering unit owner a list of written objections, if any, to the merchantability of his title. If no objections are made to such unit owner's title within said period, the transaction shall be closed as provided above. This procedure for examination of title shall only apply in the event of a sale and shall not apply to any offer for lease. In the event of a sale, at the closing, the unit owner shall convey said unit ownership estate to the Board of Administrators or to its designee on behalf of all other unit owners by General Warranty Deed, free and clear of any liens, claims or encumbrances whatsoever unless the same are set forth in the third party bona fide offer. In the event of sale, unless otherwise provided in the third party offer:

(a) All common expenses and advalorem taxes shall be prorated to the date of delivery of deed.

(b) Special assessments by any governmental authority shall be paid in full by the seller, whether installments of such assessments are unmaturred or matured.

(c) If the unit ownership estate is then under lease or rented, rentals shall be prorated to the date of delivery of deed.

(d) If a mortgage on the unit ownership estate is to be assumed or purchased subject thereto, interest will also be prorated to date of delivery of deed.

In the event such unit ownership estate is to be leased, the offering unit owner shall execute and deliver to the Board or its designee a lease between the offering unit owner, as landlord, and the Board of Administrators or its designee, as tenant, covering such unit ownership estate, on the terms and conditions contained in such third party offer to lease.

In the event the Board of Administrators or its designee shall fail to accept such offer within twenty (20) days as aforesaid, the offering unit owner shall be free to contract to sell such unit ownership estate or to lease the same, as the case may be, to the third party offeror on the terms and conditions set forth in the notice from the offering unit owner to the Board of Administrators. Any deed to a third party offeror shall provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, these By-Laws and the rules and regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time. Any lease with a third party offeror shall be consistent with the Declaration and with these By-Laws and shall provide that it may not be modified, amended, extended or assigned without the prior written consent of the Board of Administrators, that the tenant therein named shall not sublet the premises or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Board of Administrators and that the Board of Administrators shall have power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder in the event of default by the tenant in the performance of such lease. The form of any such lease shall be subject to the prior written approval of the Board of Administrators.

In the event the offering unit owner shall not, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the period in which the Board of Administrators or its designee might have accepted the offer of the third party offeror, contract to sell his unit ownership estate or to lease the same, as the case may be, to the third party offeror on the terms and conditions contained in the offer of said third party, or if the unit owner shall so contract to sell or lease his unit ownership estate within such sixty (60) day period, but such sale or lease shall not be consummated pursuant to the terms of such contract, then should such offering unit owner thereafter elect to sell his unit ownership estate or to lease the same, as the case may be, to the same or another third party offeror on the same or other terms and conditions, the offering unit owner shall be required to again comply with all of the terms and provisions of this Article.

In the event any unit owner shall attempt to sell, lease, rent, sublease or subrent his unit ownership estate or any portion therein without first complying with the provisions of this numerical paragraph, such sale, lease, rental, sublease or subrental shall be wholly null and void and shall confer no title or interest or right of possession whatsoever upon the intended purchaser, lessee, tenant, sublessee or subrenter.

The interest of any unit owner in any unit ownership estate acquired by the Board of Administrators or its designee on behalf of all unit owners shall also be subject to the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) Consent of Unit Owners to Purchase or Lease of Apartment Unit by Board of Administrators. The Board of Administrators shall not purchase or lease any unit ownership estate or any interest in any unit ownership estate or lease any unit ownership estate nor shall the Board of Administrators purchase any unit ownership estate at any judicial sale for and on behalf of the unit owners without the prior written approval of unit owners owning at least sixty per cent (60%) of the aggregate interest in the common elements as established by Article VII of the Declaration.

(3) Restriction on Severance of Appurtenant Interest. No unit owner shall execute any deed, mortgage or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to his unit ownership estate without including therein the following:

(a) The undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant thereto;

(b) The interest of such unit owner in any unit ownership estates theretofore acquired by the Board of Administrators or its designee on behalf of all unit owners, whether acquired pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) above or at judicial sale, or the proceeds of the sale or lease thereof, if any; and

(c) The interest of such unit owner in any other assets of the Association.

It is the intention hereof to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any such deed, mortgage or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests, without including all such interest, shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein.

(4) Release of Right of First Refusal and Option. The right of first refusal or options contained in numerical paragraph (1) of this Article may be released or waived by the Board of Administrators as to any particular unit ownership estate in which event said unit ownership estate and the appurtenant interest described in numerical paragraph (3) above may be sold, conveyed or leased, free and clear of the provisions of such paragraph (1). Each such release or waiver must be in writing.

(5) Certificate of Compliance. A certificate executed and acknowledged by the Secretary of the Association or by the Manager or Managing Agent stating that the provisions of numerical paragraph (1) of this Article have been met by a particular unit owner or have been duly waived by the Board of Administrators, shall be conclusive upon the Board of Administrators and the unit owners in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Such certificate shall be furnished to any unit owner who has in fact complied with the provisions of numerical paragraph (1) of this Article or in respect to whom the provisions of such section have been released or waived, upon request.

(6) Funds for Acquisition of Unit Ownership Estate by Board of Administrators. After securing the prior written approval of the unit owners as set forth in numerical paragraph (2) of this Article, acquisition of unit ownership estates by the Board of Administrators or its designee on behalf of all unit owners, may be made from reserves established for such purpose or from surplus funds in the hands of the Board and not immediately needed to meet existing common expenses. If such funds are insufficient, the Board of Administrators may levy an assessment against each unit owner in proportion to this ownership in the common elements as a common charge or expense, which assessment shall be enforceable in the same manner as provided in Article XI of these By-Laws. In the alternative, the Board of Administrators, in its discretion, may borrow money to finance the acquisition of such unit ownership estate, provided, however, that no financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any property other than the unit ownership estate so to be acquired by the Board of Administrators.

(7) Exceptions to Numerical Paragraph (1) of this Article. The provisions of numerical paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply or extend to the following:

(a) Any sale or conveyance by a unit owner of his unit ownership estate to his spouse or to any of his children or to his parent or parents or to his brothers or sisters, or any one or more of them.

(b) In no case shall such provisions apply or extend to or affect the right of a unit owner to subject his unit ownership estate to a real estate mortgage, deed of trust or other security instrument. A bona fide first real estate mortgage loan can be obtained and made on any unit ownership estate included in these By-Laws without the prior approval of any other unit owner or the Association, Board of Administrators or Managing Agent, and without complying with any of the provisions of this Article. Any owner of a first real estate mortgage on any unit ownership estate included herein may take deed thereto in lieu of the institution of foreclosure proceedings or may acquire a sheriff's deed on mortgage foreclosure sale of such mortgagee's first mortgage without obtaining the prior approval of any other unit owner or the Association or the Board of Administrators or Managing Agent and without observing the provisions above set forth in numerical paragraph (1) of this Article; provided, however, if such mortgagee acquires deed in lieu of foreclosure or acquired deed at foreclosure sale, such mortgagee shall thereafter be subject to all of the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws as a unit owner and may not thereafter sell or lease such unit ownership estate without observing the provisions of this Article.

(c) Any purchaser at a bona fide mortgage foreclosure sale shall, upon acquiring deed to said unit ownership estate, thereupon and thereafter be subject to all of the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws, including all of the provisions of this Article.

(d) The transfer of a deceased joint tenant's interest to his surviving joint tenant or the transfer of a deceased's interest to a devisee by Will or his heirs-at-law under laws of intestate succession shall not be subject to the aforesaid provisions of numerical paragraph (1) of this Article. Further, said provisions shall not apply to a conveyance or transfer by a unit owner of his unit ownership estate by gift. However, any title acquired by the surviving joint tenant, devisees, heirs-at-law or donees, shall thereupon and thereafter be subject to all of the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws including all of the provisions of this Article.

(8) Laws Against Perpetuities. The rights granted in numerical paragraph (1) above to the unit owners, acting by and through the Board of Administrators or its designee, corporate or otherwise, shall in no event continue for a period longer than is permitted under the laws against perpetuities of the State of Oklahoma and if it shall be determined that any of the terms of this Article violates any such law, the provisions hereof shall terminate at the end of the longest period permitted to continue under the laws of Oklahoma.

(9) Waiver of Right of Partition with Respect to Acquired Units. In the event that a unit ownership estate shall be acquired by the Board of Administrators or its designee on behalf of all unit owners as tenants in common, regardless of the manner in which such acquisition may be made, all such unit owners shall be deemed to have waived all rights of partition with respect to any such unit ownership estate.

(10) Payment of Assessment for Common Expenses. No unit owner shall be permitted to convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, sell or lease his unit ownership estate unless and until he shall have paid in full to the Board of Administrators all unpaid common expenses theretofore assessed by said Board against his unit ownership estate and until he shall have satisfied all unpaid liens against such unit ownership estate, except permitted mortgages.

(11) Mortgage of Unit Ownership Estate. Any unit owner shall have the express right from time to time to mortgage or encumber his unit ownership estate by mortgage, deed of trust or other security instrument subject to the express limitation that no unit owner shall mortgage his unit ownership estate except by a first mortgage made to a bank, trust company, insurance company, federal or state savings and loan association, pension fund or other institutional lender, or by purchase money mortgage to the Declarant. This limitation, however, shall not extend to a second mortgage to the Declarant or to a unit owner in Pecan Grove Garden Homes where the second mortgage to such unit owner expressly prohibits assignment thereof unless with the prior written consent of the Board of Administrators.

A unit owner who mortgages his unit ownership estate in Pecan Grove Garden Homes shall immediately, upon the execution and delivery of such mortgage, notify the Board of Administrators of such mortgage, giving the name and address of his mortgagee. A copy of said mortgage shall be enclosed with such notice. The Secretary of the Association shall maintain all mortgage information filed from the copies of the individual mortgages furnished in a book to be designated "Mortgagees of Units". Upon the release of any such mortgage or upon being advised of a change in the ownership of such mortgage, the unit owner shall be responsible for immediately notifying the Secretary of the Association thereof.

(12) Applicability to Declarant. It is expressly understood and agreed that this Article shall not be applicable to the Declarant and the Declarant shall not be required to comply with any of the provisions hereof when offering any unit ownership estate of Declarant for sale, lease or rental.

ARTICLE XIII

RESTRICTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS RESPECTING USE AND MAINTENANCE OF UNIT & COMMON ELEMENTS

(1) Each person, upon becoming the owner of a unit ownership estate or any interest therein, in Pecan Grove Garden Homes, shall fully familiarize himself with the restrictive covenants on the use of the property as set forth in Article IV of the Declaration. He shall also fully familiarize himself with any administrative or house rules and regulations established from time to time by the Board of Administrators and all amendments thereto. Each such restrictive covenant and rules and regulations shall be strictly adhered to by the unit owner. Each unit owner shall be responsible to the Board of Administrators and other unit owners for the violation thereof by any member of said unit owner's family, his social or business guests, invitees, tenants, employees, agents, servants or any occupant of his unit. Ignorance or a claim of ignorance of the existence of any such restrictive covenants or rules and regulations shall not excuse a violation thereof.

(2) The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Administrators or the breach of any By-Law contained herein or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, including without limitation the restrictive covenants therein contained, shall give the Board of Administrators the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these By-Laws, the Act or Declaration:

(a) To enter the apartment unit in which or as to which such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting unit owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Board of Administrators shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass; or

(b) To enjoin, abate or remedy, by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such breach.

ARTICLE XIV

CONFLICT WITH DECLARATION OR UNIT OWNERSHIP ESTATE ACT

These By-Laws have been compiled and adopted in order to fully comply with the requirements of the Unit Ownership Estate Act of the State of Oklahoma, Title 60, Oklahoma Statutes Annotated, Sections 501-30, inclusive, and to implement and supplement such Act and the Declaration of Unit Ownership Estate for Pecan Grove Garden Homes. If any of these By-Laws conflict with the provisions of said Act or said Declaration, the provisions of the Act or Declaration will control. Such interpretation will be given these By-Laws where possible as will avoid any conflict with such Act or Declaration.

ARTICLE XV

NON-PROFIT ASSOCIATION

The Council or Association of Unit Owners has not been created or organized for profit purposes and shall never at any time engage in any regular business of any kind for the purpose of deriving a profit or pecuniary gain for the unit owners. This Association of Unit Owners shall never at any time be used a medium for making a profit for the unit owners, Administrators or officers, incidentally or otherwise, and shall never at any time render or perform any particular service for any unit owner other than in such unit owner's capacity as such. The Council or Association of Unit Owners shall not conduct any propaganda campaigns or take part in any political campaigns as a council or association. No dividends or pecuniary profits shall be declared or paid to the unit owners and no unit owner, administrator or officer may be paid a salary or compensation in any form by reason of his unit ownership or his office in this Association; provided, of course, that this shall not limit any unit owner from being paid reasonable compensation while acting as an agent, employee or under contract with the Board of Administrators for services actually rendered in an armslength transaction to the Board of Administrators nor shall this provision prohibit reimbursement of any unit owner, administrator or officer for authorized, actual and reasonable expenses advanced or incurred in connection with the administration and operation of the property.

ARTICLE XVI

AMENDMENT TO BY-LAWS

Seventy-five per cent (75%) of the unit owners in Pecan Grove Garden Homes computed on the basis set forth in Section 503 (n) of the Act, may at any time modify or amend these By-Laws at any annual or special meeting of the unit owners duly called for such purpose as in these By-Laws provided. However, no amendment to these By-Laws may be made which would delete or omit any of the particulars described in Section 520 of the Act as being necessary contents of these By-Laws and no amendment to these By-Laws may be made which would abrogate or impair the rights granted or reserved herein to the Declarant.

Notice of the subject matter of any proposed amendment must be reasonably detailed in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is to be considered. A resolution adopting a proposed amendment may be suggested or proposed by either the Board of Administrators or by the unit owners or any unit owner. A copy of each amendment shall be certified by the Secretary of the Association as having been duly adopted by the unit owners as herein provided. Copies of each amendment shall be sent to each unit owner in the manner elsewhere provided for the giving of notices but the same shall not constitute a condition precedent to the effectiveness of such amendment.

ARTICLE XVII

MISCELLANEOUS

(1) Severability. The provisions of these By-Laws are severable and if any Article, paragraph or sub-paragraph or clause of any Article, or any sentence, clause, phrase or word of these By-Laws or the application thereof in any circumstance, be held to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity and unenforceability and the determination thereof shall not affect or extend to the validity or enforceability of any other portion of these By-Laws and the application of any portion thereof in any other circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

(2) Notices and Communications. All notices or other communications required or intended to be served or given under the provisions of these By-Laws upon an owner of a unit ownership estate covered hereby shall be deemed sufficient if reduced to writing and delivered personally or if sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such unit owner at the building address of the building on the property in which the unit of such unit owner is situated. Any unit owner may, by prior written notice to the Board of Administrators or Managing Agent or Manager, if any, change the mailing address of any notices to be given to him.

All notices or communications required or intended to be served or given under the provisions of these By-Laws upon the Board of Administrators shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the Board of Administrators in care of any Manager or Managing Agent employed by them, or if there be no Manager or Managing Agent, to the office of the Board of Administrators or to such other address as the Board may hereafter designate from time to time by notice in writing to all unit owners and to all mortgagees of unit ownership estates.

(5) Waiver. The failure of the Board of Administrators or Managing Agent or Manager to insist in any one or more instances upon the strict performance of any of the terms, covenants, conditions or restrictions of these By-Laws, the Declaration or the Act, or to exercise any right, remedy or option herein contained or contained in the Declaration or Act, or to serve any notice, or to institute any action, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment for the future of any such term, covenant, condition or restriction, but such term, covenant, condition or restriction shall remain in full force and effect. The receipt by the Board of Administrators or Managing Agent of any assessment from a unit owner with knowledge of the breach of any covenant shall not be deemed as a waiver of such breach and no waiver by the Board of Administrators or Managing Agent of any provision hereof shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by the Board of Administrators or Managing Agent.

(6) Remedies Cumulative. All remedies herein granted to the Board of Administrators or Managing Agent or Manager for the breach by any unit owner or occupant of any unit of any of the terms hereof or of the Declaration, Act or rules and regulations shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of one shall not be deemed to exclude the exercise of any remedy provided by the Act or by any other law or by the Declaration.

(7) Parliamentary Rules. Roberts Rules of Order (latest edition) shall govern the conduct of all meetings of the unit owners and the Board of Administrators when not in conflict with the Declaration or these By-Laws.
